THANK YOU, GRANDMOTHER

A small church congregation in rural Ohio met one Sunday evening to share prayer requests and praises with one another. Toward the end of their time together, a woman in her early 30s stood up and nervously sauntered forward.

She shared...

"I want to praise God for my grandmother, who died recently. She's the one who took me to church when I was young and introduced me to Jesus. She was a source of stability in my life. Had it not been for my godly grandmother, I shudder to think how my life would have turned out. Even though I have often failed, her example to me has been my beacon and I thank God for her. To me, she was the epitome of Jesus on this earth.

It's often easy to underestimate the impact our lives may have on others—but they really do, even when we don't hear about it or receive credit immediately. So, make a point to invest in others' lives (especially younger people). Though they may not tell you at the time, you are making a difference!

PUPPIES FOR SALE

But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved. Ephesians 2:4-5

A man put up a sign in his yard that read “Puppies for Sale.” Among those who came to inquire was a young boy from the neighborhood. “Please, mister,” he said, “I’d like to buy one of your puppies.”

“Well, son, they’re $25.00 each.”

The boy looked crushed. “I’ve only got two dollars and five cents. Could I see them anyway?”

“Of course,” said the man.

The lad’s eyes lit up at the sight of those five little balls of fur. “That one has a bad leg,” said the man. “I’m afraid she’ll be crippled for life.”

“Well, that’s the puppy I want. Could I pay for her a little at a time?”

The man responded, “But she’ll always have a limp.”

Smiling bravely, the boy pulled up one pant leg, revealing a brace. “I don’t walk good either.” Then, looking at the puppy, he continued, “I guess she’ll need a lot of love and help. I sure did.”

“Here, take her,” said the man. “I know you’ll give her a good home. And just forget the money.”

Because of sin in our lives, we’re just like that little crippled puppy. But when Jesus looks at us, He also looks down at His nail-pierced hands and feet and says, “I’ll give you a good home.” It’s because of those scars that He can sympathize with our pain and weakness—and gives us the hope of knowing that one day we’ll be with Him forever
